

Manifest $75 On Purpose

A SIMPLE TWO-PART SYSTEM TO DELIBERATELY MANIFEST EXTRA MONEY

PART TWO

Manifesting $75 and having fun doing it... Part 2

Before I begin...

If you repeatedly do what I showed you yesterday, then you will become an excellent manager of money...

Would you rather spend the rest of your life as an excellent manager of money, or as you have lived your life so far...

~

In Part 1, you prepared the ground.

In this part, you will deliberately apply what you've already begun.

You are not trying to force anything to happen.

You are allowing something small to happen ... on purpose.

I'm going to give you several ways to do this.

You do not need to use all of them.

One of them will feel easier than the others.

That's the one to start with.

Today I'm sharing Part 2 of a technique to manifest a small amount of money. I do this to demonstrate the value of what I teach, and to give those without the funds the option of being able to begin the process.

Now I'm going to overkill manifesting this as there are so many ways to do it. But the important thing I do here is to get you past your doubt that you can, so let's get on with it.

I'm going to give you three ways to do it, and each will work. But depending on who you are and what position you are in now one may feel more right to you.

But as I said to a friend who sought out and found the cure for cancer once, "You've found seven cures for cancer and are not sure which one to do, then do all of them."

Firstly, EXTRA MEANS EXTRA...

This is EXTRA money.

When I say “extra,” I mean money that appears without you needing to work harder.

It may still come through normal channels.

It just won’t come through strain.

It can come in the shape of you expecting to have a $300 bill and only having a $225 bill = a $75 gain. Meaning you have an EXTRA $75.

It can come in the shape of a refund showing up from something = a $75+ gain. Meaning you have an EXTRA $75.

It can come in the shape of selling something you didn’t need = a $75+ gain. Meaning you have an EXTRA $75.

It can come in the shape of finding the money, winning the money = a $75 gain. Meaning you have an EXTRA $75.

It can come in separate amounts which when added up come to $75 or more. Meaning you have an EXTRA $75.

Are we clear what EXTRA means... It comes in as EXTRA!

Next... It doesn’t have to be $75!

It can be $60.

It can be $1,000...

It can be any amount!

For example, I just expect extra money to show up regularly as a by-product of me doing what I do. And it does regularly.

Did this happen overnight?

No!

I’ve lived it as a way of life for a long time now, and it began in small amounts, and it continues to grow.

Yesterday, for example, I had $108.67 show up. I had other money too, I just haven't looked to see what it was!

I live with an expectation of money showing up, and so it does.

When I needed it to show up and doubted it would, then not only didn't it show up, but the money I had was being taken away.

Living with an expectation that money shows up and it so it shows up comes from having A Bug Free Mind, or at least being on the journey to having one.

So either you remember to apply this technique regularly or you use the money you are going to manifest to create that way of life.

So we are going to decide to manifest $75 which is more than enough to buy one book – Creating A Bug Free Mind and have it shipped to anywhere in the world.

Technique 1

Say this to yourself, "If I am supposed to read this material then out of nowhere please send me an EXTRA $75... I don't need you to send me it, just please do IF you think I should read this."

When you've done this, let it go, spend your time considering the ways that the money could've come to you. You found it in the park. You received a refund. You sold something you had which got in your way.

Feel grateful that it happened. Feel grateful that you noticed it happened... Go out and live each of the ways it could happen, happening in your mind...

If you find yourself waiting somewhere when you would normally reach for your phone, stop yourself, and for a few minutes, just consider these new ways that it could come to you.

You are not trying to make it happen, you are not wanting it to happen, you are merely providing your mind with multiple ways that it could happen. After a while, you should feel relaxed and comfortable that it is on its way to you.

Consider it regularly UNTIL it has shown up. (And if I were speaking to the child you then writing the word UNTIL would be enough, but as I am talking to the adult you, I have to explain that the word UNTIL means UNTIL ;-))

You will probably find it shows up in some weird convoluted way and so you doubt you've manifested it (which your ego will endorse of course). When this happens, remember to notice your adult brain trying to rationalise magic.

Consider when this happens that you don't need to know how, you just need to know you can...

~

If the child you had it happen, he or she would just be happy, just be grateful and go and enjoy it...

Our ego seeks to get us to rationalise it and so doubt that we can do it again!

The last thing it wants is you thinking you can do this all the time or even some of the time!

The reason I'm giving you this method is to show you how all-powerful you are. If you can do it once, you can do it again and again.

I do this, my children do this, my students do this, when I first wrote this, hundreds of people did this... We / they are no different to you.

We ALL have this at our disposal IF we think we do.

That's the rule...

You don't need to believe it. However, you must decide to allow it at least for a moment.

As it will only take a moment to create it, and as long as you do not shoot the dream in the foot by doubting it.

Then it has happened, and it's just a matter of time until it shows up in your physical reality... So no need to worry about it as it's on its way.

So go back to imagining it...

Feel it happen...

Feel what it will feel like when it does happen...

Feel the sense of achievement you'll have when the money shows up.

Imagine how that will make you feel... That not only did you imagine it happening and it has, but you are right there holding it.

Feel how good this makes you feel...

You can do it...

Now feel how this will make you feel, how if this is possible, then what else can you do too...

Once you've done all this, maybe gone through it a couple of times, then there is no need to keep doing it mechanically by coming back to it, unless it feels good to. Just keep seeing ways that it could come to you, and feel grateful for having it, as if you have it already.

~

Technique 2

This version is for people who notice themselves or can feel themselves needing the money.

If you feel tension or urgency, this version will help dissolve it.

Say this to yourself, "If I am supposed to demonstrate to myself my own ability to manifest out of nowhere some EXTRA money, then please send me an EXTRA $75... I don't need you to send me it, just please do IF you think I should learn that I am capable of doing so."

Now a few things to also consider as you do this...

1. Feel how you do not need this to happen, you'd like it to happen but you are ok if it doesn't happen... Become ok with this, it may take a little consideration...

2. Observe your ego as it seeks to doubt that this will happen... No need to judge it, just observe it and notice how doubting it is not helping you get it... If you can, then see if you notice how your ego is doubting it...

3. Be open to an even greater manifestation as you may get enough to buy the books and audios instead, maybe even more who knows... As you don't need it you are not trying to have it happen.

4. Consider if just an EXTRA $62 shows up, then is this good enough for you to start... Is this good enough for you to trust that you did this on demand, simply by directing your mind to bring EXTRA money to you...

I suggest you do that and copy this out onto a piece of paper and read it to yourself every day for a while.

If you ever feel you need it to happen, just stop and consider if needing it will help you or if being relaxed about it and letting it happen or not happen will be more beneficial to you...

No need to judge, just consider.

Then, without needing or wanting it to happen one way or the other... Go and see what happens.

The timeframe for this to work is UNTIL it does...

Observe how impatient your ego is for you to work magic... Observe how your ego seeks an explanation for how long UNTIL is...

Do not chastise yourself, just observe it all and feel grateful that you have planted the seed and it will show up when it wants to...

Technique 3

This next technique is the most immersive.

If you are new to this, I suggest using it after you've attempted one of the earlier techniques for a few days.

But it should make you feel pretty good.

We are going to design it having happened.

Let's go forward in time, say five years from now, and you are tracing back to the moment when your life changed.

Imagine the result of what manifesting this tiny amount has given you...

A long time ago you read this, you applied what I showed you, and within a period of time, you manifested the $75. You purchased the book. It was a time of trial in your life, you had many things not working right. You had felt you were stuck repeating things and appearing to go nowhere.

Then one day, you decided you'd have a go at doing a little magic.

Initially, you doubted you could, then in the end, you just saw the possibility of it happening, and you felt how good it made you feel.

You later realised that this little bit, when you felt good, was the secret to you manifesting all sorts of things.

When your book arrived, your life just began to improve. Things which had been going wrong for a long time just seemed to fix themselves.

Your work improved, you made a lot more progress, and you made a lot more money. Your relationship with your partner improved, changed, or you found the perfect partner for you.

Your children enjoyed being around you more. They listened when you spoke to them; their lives were filled with more pleasure. Seeing the joy on their faces made you feel wonderful.

You remember feeling more alive than you did before, almost like you could do anything if you simply chose to do it.

The people who annoyed you before either moved away, changed or for some reason just didn't bother you anymore. If anything, you now feel compassion towards them...

In the five years since it happened, your life has changed shape beyond all recognition. You're still there, but all the pain and discomfort have gone.

The lives of those you've affected by the way you changed has enhanced your life further. You are now living your passion because you found your purpose.

You are enjoying what you do, your days are vibrant, and your life is good...

You are sitting still in a place you love going and you are so happy that you did this one little thing which changed everything for you and brought back to life the dream of loving life.

You sit there in awe at what you've accomplished in five short years, and you are overjoyed with the thought of what you'll accomplish from there on.

You remember the time when you said to yourself, "If I am supposed to read this material, then out of nowhere please send me an EXTRA $75... I don't need you to send me it, just please do IF you think I should read this."

You read it again, "If I am supposed to read this material, then out of nowhere please send me an EXTRA $75... I don't need you to send me it, just please do IF you think I should read this."

You remember how it felt when you first said it, where you were. You see the doubts come into your mind that it was going to be possible.

You remember saying to your ego, "Hey, this may or may not be possible, I'm ok with it happening or with it not happening. Because I know if I'm supposed to get the money, I'll be given it. After all, it's only $75, so it's no threat to you, is it?"

You had to say that to yourself a few times UNTIL all doubt was removed, and all need was removed.

You didn't need it to happen as if it was meant to happen, then it would.

For a while after setting this intention, you remember thinking to yourself how wonderful it would feel when it happened. You think back to when you saw it was going to happen, when it felt like it had already happened.

You remember thinking to yourself, 'How will I react when it happens?'

'What will it feel like when I see that I can actually do this?'

You remember drifting off to sleep like you were a child again, imagining it happening...

You then remember there came a point where you just let go of needing it and wanting it to happen, because you felt it was bound to happen sooner or later...

You're back here now...

Think about it all happening again now, slow it right down. Become very present!

"Am I present now?" Yes, you are... Breathe deeply and slowly...

Any feeling that is good can just be enjoyed. Any feeling that's bad needs to be looked at for value.

Is this feeling helping me to manifest the money, yes or no.

If it's yes, then no worries; if it's no, then ask, "Why are you here? How can you help me attract the money?" That's all, then watch the feeling leave...

When it leaves, just enjoy the feeling of expectation, anticipation, but no doubt, no need, no want...

Just pleasure and the joy of personal achievement...

~

You will want to replay this story in your mind a few times UNTIL it feels like this is a 'done deal'...

In other words UNTIL it feels real to you. Like it has already happened.

If it doesn't feel real... Then just add in possibilities of how the extra money could come to you.

When I say UNTIL, I don't mean effort. I mean allowance.

Decide now to come up with 20 different ways that money could come to you. One can be a scratch card or a lottery ticket. But the other 19 need to be other ways.

What you are doing there is giving your subconscious mind many ways to bring this into your physical reality.

You are not looking for the $75 anymore; you are looking at what that $75 will give you in your life and the lives of those you love. You are looking at what benefit such a tiny amount has brought to your life...

Now, you're five years in the future again...

You're holding the book you bought with some of the money you manifested, it's looking very tired and worn now with all the folded pages, the highlighted lines and all the notes you wrote in it.

You look down and see how all this was made possible by deciding to one day play the game of manifesting just $75...

How do you feel...

You probably should feel emotional at this point, we're talking about your enhanced life after all...

You may want to pause here if you do not feel emotional and very grateful because your subconscious mind does not understand logic in the same way you do. But it understands you feeling grateful!

If you can learn to speak to it with your emotions, then you can begin accurate communication.

The feeling you are conveying is: I want this point in five years, to get me it you need to go and bring $75 to us. Here's some of the many ways you can bring it to us. I'll leave that with you now, while I feel good and grateful for you bringing it to us.

A few things...

1) You have to remove every shred of doubt; you do that by feeling good about it having happened, and about removing all doubts about it not happening. You are merely allowing it to be as it should be.

Because if it did not happen, then that is as it should be, and you should be okay with that. When manifesting, we do not force things; we make suggestions and expect that we will get exactly what is best for us.

2) Look at the doubts as you see them. Work out if they help you or hurt you to get the benefit. If they are not going to help, ask them why they are there.

3) Adding in details helps... The people you helped, the people who helped you.

Tiny details like waking up in the morning after five years of having accomplished so much. Add in the tiny details as these help. Tiny feelings, tiny things like making the coffee and feeling good. If in doubt, detail it up!

4) Be open to an even greater manifestation. You are looking for $75, so if you get $60 and top it up with $10 yourself, then you've still done it...

Why?

Because you will probably find another $50 comes in from this a few days later, another $75 from something else... This stuff may or may not all show up at once!

But also, you may just as easily get $500, as your subconscious mind may give you enough to get all you wanted to, rather than enough to buy just my first book.

You may want to invest $200 in it, save $200 for the future you, and enjoy $100 now... So if you think you didn't quite get enough, then wait for some more, or top it up as more will be coming. your choice!

You are ok with having more money come at you too, right?

Those three techniques will all work for someone.

You are not that special that one of those techniques won't work for you, despite what your ego may be telling you right now, or when you attempt to repeat it. And just because your previous life experiences may have shown you that you can't do this, does not mean you can't do it now...

Maybe, you couldn't do it then, as you needed the things that happened to you before now to all happen so that you would be ready today...

You've manifested before by accident thousands of times, all you are doing now is manifesting on purpose, that's all... You can do it, IF you think you can.

I have previously given this technique to hundreds of thousands of people. When I first did so, I really did not understand the gift I was giving them. The success people had from it was amazing. Some had it happen later the same day, and some had it happen a month later.

I am sure there were people for whom it didn't happen, but they never told me; thousands of those who made it happen chose to, and they let me know all sorts of ways the EXTRA money came to them.

The most important thing a lot of them said to me was how relaxed they felt, that it was going to happen. So I encourage you to keep going UNTIL you feel it is going to happen.

~

Now, the last bit I'm going to give you is for some protection after you've manifested the money.

You may not want to read this next bit until you have manifested the money. As it may shut down your manifesting experience, so when reading it be careful to observe your feelings.

Now, come back to the point in time when you see yourself getting the money and see how easy it was when you got it.

Observe your ego at this point as it seeks to tell you that this isn't manifesting and it came via this logical coincidence... Observe your ego as it seeks to hold you back.

This is often the moment people lose momentum... Not because nothing happened, but because something did.

Then observe your ego as it seeks to tell you that you need this money for other, more important things like food... (which it is logically correct on). Observe how it makes you feel bad and how it is keeping you trapped.

Always remember this...

You can choose to decide what to do with the money when it comes in.

You don't need to buy the book!

You can buy another fish with it if you want to, or you can learn how to fish too...

One is tangible, and one is intangible, so you will have to make that choice, and it's a tricky choice when faced with more immediate problems.

One will mean your vision is fulfilled of the book showing up, and the other will get you through another few days...

That choice will be presented to you when you have manifested the money.

I obviously want you to buy the books, but you buying them will not make a difference to my life, but it will make a difference to yours.

And that is your choice...

We have the power to help ourselves and the power to shoot ourselves in the foot...

We are allowed to do both. And that's ok! Because everything works out as it should.

So the end result is you are going to get more money; the result, which is still to be decided, is what you'll do with it.

When you start to save money, you will begin to notice that you take from your money, and after a while your money remains at the same level... Or even grows!

So the question is, did it matter that you took from your money to save...

Sure it did. You just created money using the practice of abundance. You would not be learning about abundance, you would have begun living to it...

Have fun manifesting some money, remember it is a game to be enjoyed.

If you choose to later continue to get my paid work, do so because you enjoyed the experience, not because you felt pressured to.

Enjoying the process is part of why it works.

Please feel free to share your story of how you manifested the money... This will reinforce it for you and may help to inspire others that they can do it too.

I put a special page up here for your comments: Manifesting \$75 and Having Fun Doing It

If you've experienced even the smallest shift as a result of this experiment, I would like to suggest something.

What you've just done is not a coincidence.

You changed how you thought.

You changed how you felt.

And you allowed a different result to appear.

This is the exact process I explain in more depth in my short book:

Mastering The Law of Attraction

The book is not about chasing money or attracting things.

It is about:

- Understanding how your mind creates your experience
- Removing the internal patterns that quietly block your progress

- Learning how to deliberately design the life you want to live

There is absolutely no obligation to read it.

But if you would like to understand how to do what you've just done again but more deliberately, and on a larger scale then you can find it here:

👉 View Mastering The Law of Attraction

Whatever you choose, I suggest you take this experiment seriously.

If you can create a small result on purpose, then you can create far more than you currently imagine, if you know you can.

Best wishes,

Andy
