

Manifest $75 On Purpose

A SIMPLE TWO-PART SYSTEM TO DELIBERATELY MANIFEST EXTRA MONEY

PART ONE

Manifesting $75 and having fun doing it... Part 1

This short work is not designed to convince you of anything.

It is designed to give you an experience.

Over the next few days, you are going to deliberately manifest a small amount of extra money — around $75.

Not by hoping.

Not by pretending.

But by applying a specific way of thinking and feeling.

If this works, you'll know it worked.

If it doesn't, you'll also know.

Either way, you will have learned something valuable about how your mind actually works.

One explanatory note, I first wrote this to give people a way to manifest $75 so that they could go on and buy my work at no direct cost to them.

It worked really well, as it demonstrated what I taught worked. But I don't expect you to believe that. I am just letting you know, as it explains some of what is in here.

Let's begin...

The majority opinion is to be realistic and not expect too much.

However, when you learn how powerful you really are, then being realistic is to expect miracles.

Can you imagine thinking this way?

Observe your ego if it chooses to speak.

~

In this first part, I'm sharing the foundations of a simple technique to deliberately manifest a small amount of money.

It's split into two parts for a reason.

Today is about preparing the ground. Tomorrow is about applying the technique.

This isn't about positive thinking.

This is about aligning how you think, feel, and act — so that money can show up as a by-product.

So it should increase the success rate.

WHO THIS IS FOR:

This is for people who:

- Want some extra money - for any reason
- Want to test their ability to manifest deliberately
- Want a real-world demonstration of how mindset actually works

Three Observations About Money

1. Money is energy
2. Money responds to abundance
3. Money flows toward good management

Firstly, abundance. I teach people and my children to manage money well. It doesn't matter if you are surviving on pennies or you have an income in the millions... The universal law is the same:

Manage your money well and the Universe will give you more of it to manage. Manage it badly, and the Universe will take away what little you have.

I personally know athletes who have earned millions in their careers and now survive on handouts.

There have been movie stars too, in similar positions. So creating riches does not make you a good manager of money.

You can learn to manage money well if you are currently going backwards too.

So don't let the fact that you currently have none deter you from the truth that you can still master managing nothing well.

Because also in doing that you are demonstrating to the Universe that if you are given some, then you will manage it well...

~

When I was broke, I was a much better money manager than the first time I was rich!

I am not what I consider rich again yet. Though, as I'm a multi-millionaire again, most people would call me rich. I am a very good manager of money now and only ever spend 25% of whatever I make. The remainder is saved and invested.

Though before you beat yourself up for not being able to live that way, please understand I did not just wake up one day and decide to not spend any more than 25% of the money I generated.

There was a time when I couldn't save a penny. I thought about how to do it for a long time and then gradually built up to saving 75%. So it took me a long time to achieve it (about 8 years to be precise!).

Magic happens with money when you begin to demonstrate that you are a good manager of it.

Did you notice what I said above - that 'I am a very good manager of money now'?

If you do not currently consider yourself a good manager of money, then it is time to change that perspective to, 'I am becoming a very good manager of money.'

Just starting with saving a dollar a week can be all that's needed.

The amount didn't matter.

What mattered was the signal being sent.

I know it may sound ridiculous from the position you are in now, but the act of saving the money and putting it into a safe place where you refuse to touch it no matter what. And I mean, no matter what. Demonstrates an ability that allows more money to flow to you!

You can choose to believe this, dismiss this or know it, accept it and apply it... All of which are your choice.

~

When my wife and I came back to live in the UK, a few days before I went bankrupt, we had a lot of things to sort out financially, including a lack of money.

Fifteen months in, things got really hard for us and I said to her we needed to start saving again. I said that because things got hard for us.

She argued with me that this was ridiculous as we didn't have any money. I said *we would never have money again if we didn't master, again, the ability to save.

So I forced us to save.

Within months of saving just $150 a month, money began to flow to us again. Within a few months of that, we'd created over $10,000 in savings...

The money came from things falling our way instead of going against us.

I choose to think all this came from saving just a small amount, as money magic began to happen when I began to demonstrate my ability to manage money again.

So I suggest you don't underestimate this... Though your ego right now is probably causing a bit of a fuss...

And depending on your position, I suggest starting with as little as $1 a week...

But once you save it, there are some VERY IMPORTANT rules...

They are:

- 1. It is no longer your money. It is the future you's money.
- 2. Only a portion of it can ever be used.
- 3. The future you would have to thank you for using it.

Now, if you think what I've shown you here will work, then it will. If you think it will not work, then it won't... A choice!

It's down to you. Which result would you like?

Being a bit of a sarcastic pain in the ar*e... I take great pleasure in reminding my wife that when we began saving money, 'we didn't have'... Then, more money 'we didn't have' began flowing to us...

I infrequently roll that out and remind her of it when she lets her ego doubt things... *Or when I just want to be a pain in the ar*e for fun!*

When it comes to money, there are rules; I don't make the rules, I just play by them and use them to my advantage.

You can too, if you think you can.

Next, I want to cover for a few moments why I will never give my A Bug Free Mind work away for free. No matter how hard up someone is who clearly needs what I teach. And why it is that you shouldn't want me to do so either...

Because if I give it away, then I rob people of the value of what they can learn from creating it for themselves.

I like to teach people how to fish; I do not like to give them a fish.

What I'm about to explain matters because value is part of the process.

There was a student of mine who wrote to me a few weeks after beginning the Bug Free Mind Process and told me how he'd managed to buy it, which I found an inspiring story, so I thought I'd share it here with you.

He was a 65-year-old man who lived in Florida. The day before he lost his home and went to live on the streets, he had downloaded the free 5 chapters of Creating A Bug Free Mind.

He went out onto the streets with just a suitcase of clothes and his laptop.

Every day, he read and re-read the five chapters, and he knew he would one day buy the whole process.

After six months or so, he had gone from the street into his own apartment with a job and had enough surplus to buy both the books. He thanked me for giving him what he needed to turn his life around.

I can honestly say he gave me a lot, too.

Because he saw value in it, he created it for himself and has used it to go a long way past where he was back then. He decided to think he could, instead of thinking he couldn't.

*Our human nature is that something we get for free has little value to us.

But something we have to strive for is of supreme value to us. It creates a sense of personal achievement.

So I will never rob someone of this massive life-changing value by giving it away for free.

I also must be remunerated for my work, otherwise I will go and do other work. Because I enjoy the art of doing business and making things work. I couldn't do that if I weren't paid.

So to manifest the money needed to buy the first part of the process...

The perfect way to begin the Bug Free Mind Process is, in my opinion, manifesting the money to purchase just the first book...

Yes, you may want more, and want to buy both the books and audios, but we can look at that later; the first thing is just enough to begin.

The fact that you may not have the money to buy the books gives you the perfect opportunity to practice what I teach.

After all, if you cannot manifest $75 from what I teach, then what value is the system for creating the life of your dreams, right?

What I'd like you to do today is to consider a few things from Part 2 in preparation for manifesting.

> Consider... If you have a lack of money and are always struggling to make ends meet, then what message are you sending to the Universe...

~

If you think... Money is hard work, I am a poor manager of money... The Universe responds by giving you more of the same.

Don't rush on to the next point, just consider this for a little while...

~

> Now consider, how would you feel if you managed a little of your money well...

Imagine that feeling...

Can you see how this feeling demonstrates that you can be a good manager of money and that the Universe should give you more to manage...

Don't rush on to the next point, just consider this for a little while...

~

> Can you feel how if you think you can manifest some extra money that you can...

Do you see how, by looking at money and seeing it as something you lack, you are creating more lack...

If you see it and feel it as something that grows, then you turn the tide, and it will go the other way...

Don't rush on to the next point, just consider this for a little while...

~

> Can you feel how good it will feel to be holding a book that you bought with money you manifested...

How seriously would you NOW take all you can learn from this book...

~

> Just imagine yourself first manifesting a small amount... Then fixing all the bugs in your mind... Then creating the design for your life... And then going on a journey for the rest of your life, which brings it into everyone else's reality...

> How does all that feel...

~

I suggest you go back through all those thoughts again and spend 5 to 10 minutes feeling how each of those feels.

No need for too much time, just as long as you feel each one and each one makes you feel good.

You are looking to feel good.

You may notice the feeling that it feels like this is inevitably going to work. If you get to feel that without a single wisp of doubt, then you have applied this technique perfectly. If you don't have that feeling, then it will still work perfectly well. I am just giving you feelings to look out for.

It may appear that not much is happening as you do this, but you are preparing your mind in the right way. You are using the laws of manifesting the right way.

In Part 2, I'll show you several ways to deliberately manifest around $75.

You don't need to decide which one will work.

One of them will feel right to you, and that's the one to start with.

Between now and then, I want you to do just one thing:

Notice how you think and feel about money.

Not to judge it.

Just to observe it.

In Part 2, you'll put this into practice.

You will manifest the money... If you allow the process to work.

I'll be back with the second part of this technique, which means YOU WILL manifest the money!

Best wishes,

Andy

P.S. A Quick Note Before You Continue

Some people experience resistance after reading this first part. Not because it isn't working... but because it is.

Doubt, impatience, or the urge to “see how this works” are all normal.

They don’t need fixing.

They just need noticing.

In Part 2, you’ll be given several ways to apply this.

One of them will feel easier than the others.

That’s the one to begin with.

A Final, Quiet Note

Before you leave this page, I would like to mention something briefly.

Everything you’ve just read comes from a body of work I’ve been developing for many years - not just about manifesting, but about understanding how the mind quietly shapes results.

That work lives in a short book called:

Mastering The Law of Attraction

It is not required for what you’re doing here.

Part 2 of this experiment stands completely on its own.

But if, at some point, you find yourself curious about where this way of thinking comes from, you can find the book here:

👉 Learn more about Mastering The Law of Attraction

For now, simply close this page and allow what you’ve read today to settle.

Part 2 will arrive tomorrow.

Best wishes,

Andy

Other work by Andy Shaw

Mindset & Abundance Education - www.ABugFreeMind.com

Rational Thinking Commentary - The Rational Thinking Webcast

Articles - Whatever comes to mind - andyshaw.substack.com

Copyright © Andy Shaw 2026